PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear friends in Christ, The liturgy of today set before us two very important events that happened in the history of man. Man's sin and Christ's redemption. Man had just been created by God and came from his hands pure and entire, made to his image and likeness; he was living in innocence and joy and friendship with his creator. But Satan envious of Adam's well being, was lying in wait and struck him with a triple temptation in regard to God's command. First the temptation not to believe the word of God "you will not die" Second the temptation of pride "you will be like gods" And finally, that of disobedience. The first two clear the way to the last and man falls by transgressing God's command. But God knew that man had been deceived, and therefore, even while punishing him, promised him a Savior who would deliver him from error and sin. To do this work, the son of God accepted being made like man in all things but sin, not even refusing to be tempted by the devil as we read in today's gospel. For Jesus the desert is not only a place of solitude and of face to face prayer with his Father, it is a battlefield where, before beginning his apostolic life, he takes a stand against the eternal enemy of God and man. Jesus gives us example that like him, we can overcome temptation if we trust in God's holy Word.

2020 Annual Appeal for Catholic Ministries: Thank-you to those of you who took advantage of last week's In-Pew process to make a gift or pledge to the 2020 AACM. As a reminder, this is a once-a-year opportunity for all of us, as part of the greater Catholic community of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, to make a financial commitment to support ministries across the entire Archdiocese that support the spiritual and corporal works of mercy to which we are called as Christians. Since it is important that all our parishioners are given the opportunity to participate in the Appeal, I ask those who have already pledged to bear with us this weekend for just a few minutes so that we can give anyone who may not have been present last week, or perhaps needed a little more time to decide on their gift, the chance to do so on this weekend. Thank you.
